New strategy of Grupa Kęty

The new Strategy for the years 2021–2025 assumes that in 2025 the leader of the Polish aluminium market shall reach PLN 4.6 billion revenue and PLN 787 million EBITDA. Investment projects in that period are going to cost PLN 1.1 billion, half of which will be spent on development project. The governing bodies of Grupa Kęty assume that the driving motor for the three business segments development will be exports. The Group also considers the sale of the Flexible Packaging Segment (comprising the companies of Alupol Packaging, Alupol Packaging Kęty and Alupol Film). Therefore, at the beginning of 2021 the Management Board made a decision on the selection of Rothschild & Co Poland as an adviser in the process of identifying the interest among potential investors.

2020 awards

The Stock Exchange Company of the Year 2020

The Stock Exchange
Company of the Year
2020

Grupa Kęty S.A. occupies the 3rd position in the prestigious main ranking of the 22nd edition of the Best GPW Listed Companies under the name 'The Stock Exchange Company of the Year', organised by Puls Biznesu. The Grupa Kęty also took a very high, third position in the sub-ranking of 'Investor Relations', and the fourth position in the sub-ranking of the 'Management Board Competence'. Every year, 100 stock analysts, investment advisers and managers, who represent brokerage houses, pension funds and investment funds, select the Stock Exchange Company of Year. This is a great advantage of the research, because stock companies receive valuable information about their perception by the professional market participants. The ranking emphasises the importance of the Stock Exchange in financing the Polish economy, on the one hand, and, on the other hand, indicates companies whose management boards, products and services, or corporate culture are of top quality and worth following, esteeming and promoting.

Investor Relations research among WIG30 companies

Grupa Kęty occupies the 2nd position in the latest edition of the Investor Relations research among WIG30 companies performed by the 'Parkiet' paper and the Brokerage Houses Chamber.

The companies were selected within two parts of the research: the votes of the readers and individual investors cast on our website, and a questionnaire sent out to the representatives of financial institutions. The questionnaire was answered by over one thousand people, and the number of votes exceeded 17 thousand. The other part of the research was joined by the representatives of 19 different financial institutions, including funds and brokerage houses (analytical departments). The managers and analysts assessed the IR of companies at the average level of 4.1 points within the scale of 1 to 6. The highest place has been taken by LPP (4.92) and just behind it has been Grupa Kęty (4.8), the third position has been assigned to Asseco Poland (4.6).
